

XIV. Curriculum vitae

Personal data:

Name: Kindu Mekonnen Tegegne

Date of Birth: 01.12.1968

Place of Birth: Woreta (Gondar), Ethiopia

Nationality: Ethiopian

Marital status: Married and have three sons

University: UNI-BOKU, Vienna, Austria

Education:

September 1984 to July 1988: Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Plant Sciences - Alemaya University of Agriculture, Ethiopia.

October 1993 to June 1996: Master of Philosophy (MPhil) in Forestry – Moi University, Kenya.

March 2004 to June 2007: Doctoral studies at the Institute of Forest Ecology, Department for Forest and Soil Sciences, UNI-BOKU, Vienna, Austria

Professional Experience:

1988 -1992 and 1997 - 2004: Worked as a researcher in the Forestry, and Soil and Water Management research sectors of the Ethiopian agricultural research system.

1990 - 1993: Served as a secretary for the Ethiopian National Agroforestry Research Technical Committee.

1999 - 2000: Served as Center Director of Sirinka Agricultural Research Center, and board member for research and multiplication centers of Amhara region.

2001 - 2004: Served as a site coordinator for African Highlands Initiative project at Holetta, Ethiopia.

1988 - 2007: Published and submitted more than nine articles in international journals, 14 manuscripts in proceedings, and prepared and edited more than 8 proceedings, survey reports and news letters; and attended more than 10 training programs organized in Ethiopia, USA, Kenya, Philippines and other countries on integrated land-use approaches; nutrient flow analysis and organic resources characterization; watershed management, modeling and project preparation; developing and writing a forest research project for funding support; and data management and analysis.

Vienna: May 2007