Emendations to the quoted text of the PādS

The transliteration of the Sanskrit text of the PādS is based on the critical edition of the PādS by S. Padmanabhan (see Bibliography). Emendations to the text established by the editor are marked in this study as follows: if a variant reading indicated by the editor in his critical apparatus is adopted, then the manuscript abbreviation (such as śrī, ma, etc.) is quoted before the emended text; if the emendation is suggested by the author of the present study, then the emended text is simply preceded by em. An asterisk (*) precedes the text to be emended and the emendations appear in brackets.
