

39 (p. 98)

The upper or northern end of Do-ya-ya gorge. Here the limestone gives way to conglomerate, very porous yet smooth in appearance; elevation 10700 feet. Eastern Min Shan, Yellow River–Yangtze divide. Willows to right, to left on the smooth walls Juniperus saltuaria Rehd. & Wils.

40 (p. 120)
A lämmergeier (Gypaetus barbatus grandis Starr) shot on the eastern shores of the Koko Nor, Ch'ing-hai.