

87 (p. 210)

The Am-nye Ma-chhen Range (Ma-chhen pom-ra) as seen from the summit of Am-nye Drug-gu, elevation 144350 feet, looking west. The valley of the Gur-zhung is below and west of the ridge in the immediate foreground. The Tshab Chhu Valley is beyond the ridge above the little cloud extending diagonally towards upper center of picture. Juniperus tibetica Kom. on the slopes.

88 (p. 210)

The Yellow River gorges looking up stream from the mountains to the west of it, from a bluff 10500 feet elevation, below Am-nye Drug-gu, the mountain god of the Yön-zhi tribe. To right on the slopes Picea asperata Mast., middle distance Juniperus tibetica Kom. and willows, foreground Rhododendron capitatum Max. The small white flowers are Leontopodium linearifolium H.-M.